STUDENTS

DECEMBER WORD OF THE MONTH: COMPASSION

Being kind, caring and helpful

STUDENTS – Wilson welcomes 14 student visitors from Korea this week. These middle school aged students will visit classes today and tomorrow Friday, led by our student guides. Students, please give our visitors a wonderful "Wilson" welcome! (Mr. Richard Lucas)

STUDENTS – Tonight is the instrumental music concert! It begins at 6 pm. If you enjoyed hearing concert band, string orchestra, and symphonic orchestra in the assembly, come tonight to hear the entire program. Beginning band, beginning string orchestra and drumline will also be performing! The concert is free! You must stay for the entire program, you may not leave early. It will be over by 7:30 pm. (Ms. Gianos)

STUDENTS – If you sold Sees Candy for the PE fundraiser you will be given your candy Wed. during your PE period. If you sold a whole lot you need to make arrangements for a ride home. (Mr. Knapp)

"REFLECTIONS" PROGRAM PARTICIPANTS – We wanted to give you an update on the judging process and let you know about the winners from Wilson. There were three winners from Wilson selected at the Council level, who were chosen from all Glendale area middle school finalists. Entries are scheduled to be returned sometime in April. And the Wilson winners will be celebrated at that time with details to come. Congratulations to all the winners!
